

SUNDAY 13 JANUARI LET THE PEOPLE GO!

This winter a new border prison was filled with people, many among them innocent migrants and asylum seekers. On Sunday 13 januari 2013 we (Time to Turn, Catholic Worker Amsterdam & churches from the Haarlemmermeer, supported by Amnesty International) invite all people of good will to come and join us to symbolically turn this prison into a hospitable Inn.

Programme:

- 13.15 u. - Getting together in the Pelgrimskerk, Havikstraat 5, Badhoevedorp.
- 13.30 u. - Bram van Ooijk from Groen Links speaks & the choir Morrend Volk sings and there's some coffee & tea.
- 14.00 u. - Start of the March for Freedom and Hospitality (3 km) to the new prison at the airport, accompanied by the Freedom Drummers.
- 15.00 u. - At the Justitieel Complex Schiphol, Duizendbladweg 100, Badhoevedorp several people will speak (Annemarie Busser from Amnesty, former mayor of Amsterdam Ed van Thijn, anti border prison activist Frits ter Kuile and hopefully someone from the Vluchtkerk).
- 15.45 ?u. - We walk around the prison to wave, sing and show our support for the prisoners. The band 'Fanfare van de eerste Liefdesnacht' will drum loud and let their trumpets sound against the prison walls & in support of the prisoners.
- 16.15 u. - (Symbolic) reopening of the prison into a hospitable inn: rolling out of a red carpet for future guests, giving a demand to the prison director & those responsible in the Hague, as well as flowers for the prisoners and the prison staff, dictionaries and games for the guests and a key board full of keys, keys to a free and hospitable world.
- 16:45 u. - hot chocolate & end & going home to rest & continue the struggle for Justice

Nonviolence in word & action: If you want to join this witness for a more hospitable world, we ask you to do it in the spirit of Jezus, Gandhi and Martin Luther King, by not being verbally or physically aggressive to (military)police, prison guards or others, not to damage anything and to follow the directions of the organisers.

Transport back: the action bus will ride back to the church from where we departed with a first load of elder and less able people who cannot walk so well. Then the bus will return to shuttle people who are already walking back on the Sloteweg. Also at 04 and 34 minutes past the hour bus 185 rides from the prison to Schiphol Plaza from where there are many connections with the rest of the world.

See also www.laatuwgastenvrij.nl & You Tube Louis Armstrong 'Go down Mozes'.